at the Wilf Campus for Senior Living

September 17, 2020

Dear Residents, Families and Friends,

As we continue to follow all standards and precaution to ensure the safety of your loved ones, I am excited to share the following with each of you.

Beginning tomorrow Friday September 19, 2020 (in time for the Holidays) Communal Dining will begin at dinner. Lunch and dinner will be served in two separate sessions throughout the Holidays. Following the Holidays, indoor communal dining will continue with each resident receiving lunch or dinner daily. Breakfast will continue to be served in the rooms.

We have implemented the following precautions to ensure that we are meeting and exceeding recommendations and guidance from NJ Department of Health, CDC, and OSHA:

- There will be four “cohorts”, each table will seat two individuals.
- The tables have plexiglass partitions.
- Dining will be in the Country Kitchen, Private Dining Room, and Chapel.

In addition to Communal dining, we are opening up for family/loved ones to attend the Holiday Services that Rabbi Bryan Kinzbrunner is holding outside. In order to accommodate all of those that wish to share in services we request the following:

- The outside attendance will be limited to a total of 16 individuals. (Weather permitting) Please call to secure a seat.
- Maximum of two individuals attending per resident
- Each family may choose either Saturday or Sunday Service
- Please call the Receptionist to schedule your attendance at service. 732-568-1155
